

UNAFRAID HOMEOWNER GUIDE

The Homeowner's Sheet helps address things that may be a little off in the home, such as oppression (abuse, cruelty, injustice, suffering, pain, evil thoughts) and maintaining peace in your house or property, whether related to current residents or prior tenants.

Ensure that your heart is set right. Our posture should be desiring the delivering and healing power of Jesus Christ. Invite Christ to come into your hearts and home, for He is The Way in this spiritual journey. Pray that the Holy Spirit reveals anything that must be addressed as you walk through your house and land.

Be open and receptive to what the Holy Spirit brings to your attention. This includes confessing and forgiving sins and removing items such as books, souvenirs, or other idols. Stay open to His guidance; He knows better than you do.

Re-engage as necessary. As time passes and we have visitors in our home, old habits and mindsets are entertained and emerge we must re-engage or do some maintenance.

Through the transformative power of prayer, you can dispel doubts, strengthen faith, and align your heart with The Lord. This act is not just a routine but a powerful tool that connects you spiritually. Remember, this battle is not against flesh and blood but against evil rulers and authorities and powers in this dark world (Eph. 6:12).

Example Prayer:

"In the name of Jesus, I/we ask you to remove any spirits of doubt, confusion, or hindering spirits so that we may walk through our home/land with You in the correct heart posture. I/We ask for this process to reveal anything that is not of You, both knowingly and unknowingly, so that we can better live a life that is focused on You and Your righteousness. Please expose any objects, beliefs, and mindsets that do not align with You and Your Will so we may be set free. I/We surrender to your guidance, for I/We know Your way is greater than my/our way. Please lead! Amen."
